

MEC

MECHATRONIC & ELECTRONIC CENTER

Production, Repairing Machine and Retrofitting Machine

The Mechatronic and Electronic Centre (MEC) has been established to assist in the increasing of the global competitiveness industry particularly the electronic and precision engineering sector through its competencies in machine production and retrofitting. Our team has the technology and product knowledge necessary to provide you with the right automation solution for your Tools Machine or machine productions, no matter if you are a machine builder, system integrator or end user. We provide products, systems and solutions for new machines and also for retrofitting existing machines.

Vision:

To be the leader in system integration services; Core competencies in tools machine and machine production technologies; Customers are our focus along with the development of employees to aim the profitable growth

Business Philosophy

Committed to customers satisfaction and serve the community

Business Excellence

To provide the best quality automation services, we use the latest proven technologies; To support a working environment and invent innovation and growth, we provide our customers with a technical team with hands on experience in the industry; As commitment and integrity are our main values, was build long-term partnerships with our customers

